

NOMINATION NOTE

Armen appoints Hugh Langmuir as Chair of Armen Partners UK Limited

London, 15th of January 2025 - GP stakes firm Armen announces the appointment of Hugh Langmuir as Chair of Armen Partners UK Limited, succeeding Thierry Baudon. Hugh brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the role, further strengthening Armen's leadership team. He will be supporting the London team led by Catherine Haumesser to consolidate Armen's leading position in the European GP stake market. Thierry will remain on the board of Signal Capital Partners on behalf of Armen Partners UK.

Hugh is a founder and former managing partner of the European private equity firm, Cinven, which raised more than €50bn since inception. He was responsible for the execution of the firm's strategy, the day-to-day management of the firm and the Investment Committee and Portfolio Review Committee. Based in London and Paris, he led investments across multiple industry sectors and played a key role in raising successive funds from Cinven's global investor base.

Prior to joining Cinven in 1991, Hugh began his career as an investment banker at Citigroup and as a management consultant with Bain & Company.

Hugh holds degrees from the University of Edinburgh, Harvard University, London Business School and King's College London.

Commenting on the appointment, Dominique Gaillard, Executive Chairman of Armen, said: "Hugh's extensive experience and proven track record in private equity make him an invaluable addition to our team. His expertise will be instrumental as we continue to expand and enhance our presence in the UK and beyond. We are confident that Hugh's leadership will drive Armen's growth and success in the coming years."
